

Job Title: Architectural Designer

Location: London

We are looking for an Architectural Designer to join one of our interiors projects team. We are aiming to grow our retail portfolio and would want you to be an active part of that growth.

We are currently working closely with our client, one of the world's most reputable market leading retail brands, therefore, we are looking for candidates ideally with retail experience.

Main responsibilities:

- Become the project day-to-day lead in the closing stages of design and tender of our client's retail store, in London
- Progressing to see the project through on site, whilst starting up work on our client's next retail project, and/or working on front-end proposals for other retail projects.
- Work closely with the Account Lead and a Director, to ensure that we adhere to our client's standards, ensuring aspirations are being met, and that the project is adequately resourced and programmed
- Coordinate a small technical team during the production stages, whilst being autonomous during early design and on-site stages
- Attend client meetings and presentations as necessary
- Analyse the brief and prepare drawings and presentations for review with the wider project team, including client, local consultants, and engineers
- Participate in design team meetings and coordinate with consultants & relevant statutory authorities to further the building design
- Maintain the practice's drawing standards and contribute to the firm knowledge base
- Opportunities will also arise to work on other sectors, such as Workplace and Student Residential interiors.

Required Skills:

- 2 to 4 years previous retail and or workplace experience with heavy refurbishment
- Software: Advanced knowledge of working in AutoCAD, Sketchup, Photoshop and PowerPoint
- Revit skills are not essential for this role; however proven experience will be required to work on our projects in the long term
- Strong technical skills/detailing experience
- Experience coordinating/ leading complex projects

Benefits include:

- Private medical care
- Annual office trips
- Contributory pension scheme
- Cycle to work scheme
