

Senior Technician

Job Title: Senior Technician

Department: Interiors

Location: London

Salary: Competitive

The role:

TP Bennett are currently recruiting for an experienced Senior Interiors Technician to work on a large commercial project in London. Ideally, you will have extensive proven experience with similar projects and responsibilities

Key responsibilities:

- Technical Revit Packages
- Liaising with contractors
- Assisting project architect, associate & partner level on design documentation
- Planning, Tender, Construction stages of design documentation
- Revit modelling, documentation and file management
- Coordination of consultant services drawings and models
- Revit assistance and collaboration of project setup and management

Qualification, experience and skills:

- UK Project exposure
- Commercial/Retail background
- Intermediate to advanced Revit is a must have
- Proficient in AutoCAD, InDesign, Photoshop, SketchUp, V-Ray Rendering, Microsoft Office
- Degree or Masters qualified in Architecture
- Strong, proven working experience in Architectural / Interior Design environment.
- Strong understanding of Building Information Modelling (BIM) process and workflow fundamentals.

- Good understanding of UK building construction fundamentals.
- Good communications skills with good written and spoken English.
- Organised, pro-active, and self-disciplined with ability to take initiative.

If you are interested in applying for the role, please send your cv and portfolio to careers@tpbennett.com