

junior workplace consultant

Job Title: Junior Workplace Consultant

Department: Strategy

Location: SE1 0NE

Salary: Competitive

Job Purpose:

To join and be an integral part of a leading workplace strategy team at top interior design and architectural practice in London. Due to secured workload and a strong pipeline, we have a requirement for a Junior Strategist to expand the team. We need a confident and competent self-starter that can take on responsibility for supporting projects straight away.

We are not necessarily looking for a background in architecture or design; this is a strategic role with a heavy bias on data manipulation and analysis or from a wellbeing and workplace psychological perspective.

- Degree educated
- You must have experience in a transferable role

Ideally with experience in:

- Client interaction
- Data manipulation & analysis
- Narrative report writing
- Workplace strategies
- Wellbeing in the workplace
- Psychology in the workplace

The ability to provide support:

- Developing strategic briefs
- Confidence to support interview, focus group & workshops
- Creative & analytical thinker
- High level of Excel is a must
- Auto CAD experience a bonus but not a prerequisite

If you are interested in applying for the role, please send your cv and portfolio to careers@tpbennett.com with the headline 'junior workplace consultant'