

Job Title: Interior Design

Departments: Interiors

Location: London

Job Purpose:

To provide assistance to Senior Designers in a fast-paced and dynamic environment. The role is an excellent opportunity for someone to develop their skills as a designer within a successful interior design practice.

Key responsibilities and accountabilities:

- General assistance to senior designers working on a variety of projects
- Liaising with clients to assess and advise on project costs & technical specifications
- Assisting in the preparation of technical and 3D drawings
- Preparation of presentation boards
- Assistance with the selection of finishes and materials
- Assistance with the selection of FF&E
- Keeping abreast of developments in design techniques and trends
- Sketching
- Other ad-hoc duties as required by the business

Qualifications, skills & experience:

- Relevant degree with proven track record in interior design
- Previous experience in commercial interior design
- Computer literate – excellent skills in Revit, AutoCAD, Photoshop, Sketch-Up and In Design
- Ability to sketch is desirable.
- Excellent conceptual design and presentation skills.
- Strong communication skills.
- Ability to multi-task and prioritise work.
- A team player.
- A flexible approach to work